Curiosity Never Killed This Cat! is a documentary about Philippe Mora who takes us on a unique journey into his film and art revealing a tragic family past. Learn more about Philippe's story at vimeo.com/89641171.

You are invited to join us Saturday April 30th at Emily Carr University from 6.30 to 8.30 for a fundraiser with the proceeds going directly towards the completion costs for the film.

The event features a silent auction of six of Philippe's paintings and the premiere of our new promo video. Appetizers and drinks will be served and the event will be accompanied by the swinging sounds of the James Dean trio.
